

JOSEPH HERRIN, AIA

ACADEMIC

1993 . Master of Architecture, University of Pennsylvania
1989 . Bachelor of Architecture, Washington State University
1988 . Foreign study, Danish International Studies program

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Registered Architect in the State of Washington
Member, American Institute of Architects
LEED Certified Design Professional - US Green Building Council
Certified Passive House consultant - Passive House US

PUBLIC SERVICE

2009 – present . Board member, Ballard Avenue Landmark District
2004 – 2008 . Trustee, Laurelhurst Community Club
2006 . Project Advisory Team member, Laurelhurst Community Center expansion project
1996 – 2004 . Visiting critic at University of Washington and Washington State University
1999 . Design studio instructor at the University of Washington
1998 . Design studio instructor at Cornell University

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2000 – present . Heliotrope Architects - Principal
1995 – 2000 . NBBJ Architects - Senior Associate
1994 – 1995 . Venturi, Scott Brown & Associates - Architect
1993 – 1994 . Cecil Baker & Associates Architect
1990 – 1992 . NBBJ Architects - Intern Architect
1989 – 1990 . Schemmer Associates - Intern Architect

AWARDS

2011 . AIA National Honor Award - North Beach Residence
2010 . Merit Award, AIA Honor Awards for Washington Architecture - Suncrest Residence
2009 . Merit Award, AIA Honor Awards for Washington Architecture - North Beach Residence
2007 . Citation Award, AIA Washington Civic Design Awards - Ross Park Shelterhouse
2006 + 2008 . Seattle Magazine Top 50 Architects
2003 . Merit Award, AIA NW and Pacific Region Honor Awards - WRA Advertising
2001 . Merit Award, AIA Honor Awards for Washington Architecture - WRA Advertising
1998 . Telenor Headquarters invited design competition, winning team (with NBBJ)
1998 . NBBJ designer of the year award
1998 . NBBJ "Oregano" honorary travelling fellowship award
1996 . Kangbuk Samsung Hospital invited design competition - winning team (with NBBJ)
1994 . National AIA Honor Award, Harvard Memorial Hall renovation - team member (with VSBA)
1990 . Third Place, Washington State Korean War Memorial design competition